Bergenfield Film Festival Regulations/Guidelines

- BFF considers films of all lengths and genres.
- All entries must include a non-refundable entry fee of $30 (accepted are money orders and checks made out to the "Bergenfield Film Festival"). Films will not be previewed without the entry fee.
- All entries must be accompanied by a completed Entry Form, Filmmaker Bio & Photo, Brief Synopsis of Film, Cast & Credits List, and List of Film's Previous Festival Screenings and Awards List. Upon acceptance the filmmaker is required to provide a digital version via email.
- There is no limit to the number of entries a filmmaker may enter as long as each submission has its own Entry Form and $30 fee.
- All entries must be submitted - and will be exhibited - in DVD format.
- All films must be in English or contain English subtitles.
- DVD (2 copies) without menus. Selected submission copies will be used as the exhibiting copy. Each DVD copy must include the title, run time, and director's name clearly printed on the DVD's surface (no stick-on labels).
- The BFF will not make any edits to any of the films.
- All entries must be received by April 1.
- Notification of acceptance or rejection of films will be made via email by April 20th.
- Accepted filmmakers are expected to attend the festival and invited to an after-party held immediately following the night's last screening.
- Submission of a film constitutes agreement with the above regulations.
- The BFF reserves the right to decide on all matters/questions not specifically addressed here.
